The wedding took place at an evening ceremony on Thursday, August 26, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Dixon. Mr. Dixon, Minister of the Church of Christ, read the ring service in the presence of only immediate family members and intimate friends.

An improvised altar was arranged in the living room of amaranth, ferns and standard baskets filled with asters, gladioli and tube roses placed alternately. The traditional wedding marches were played by Mrs. Arden Bradley and "To A Wild Rose" was the ceremony melody.

The bride wore a two-piece Navy dress of original design. Its tailored smartness was softened by accessories of novel ideas. With this she wore matching accessories of advanced Fall mode. Her flowers were a shoulder corsage of tuberoses.

Proclamation

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES

Proclamation

RECOGNIZING THE FACT that in carrying the war into enemy territory, we shall need greater amounts of money than any nation has ever asked from its citizens in all history, I, FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT, President of the United States of America, do officially proclaim that on Thursday, the ninth of September, 1943, the Third War Loan shall be launched.

As Commander-in-Chief, I hereby invoke every citizen to give all possible aid and support to this Third War Loan drive, not only so that our financial goal may be reached, but to encourage and inspire those of our husbands and fathers and sons who are under fire on a dozen fronts all over the world. It is my earnest hope that every American will realize that in buying War Bonds in this Third War Loan he has an opportunity to express voluntarily and under the guidance of his conscience, the extent to which he will "back the attack."

The American people supported well the first and second War Loan drives and in fact did even more than was asked of them. Our need for money now is greater than ever, and will continue to grow until the very day that Victory is won; so we must ask far more sacrifice, far more cooperation than ever before.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington, this twenty-sixth day of July, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and forty-three, and of the Independence of the [SEAL] United States of America the one hundred and sixty-eighth.

By the President:

CORDELL HULL

Secretary of State.

ISRAEL CALLED TO BE A HOLY PEOPLE

LESSON TEXT—Leviticus 19:1-14, 11-14:10
GOLDEN TEXT—Be ye holy: for I am holy.—1 Peter 1:16

Labor Day, 1943, with a war-torn world, finds us facing a social order deeply divided regarding the rights and wrongs of the relationship between man and man, especially capital and labor.

For these many years we have talked of a planned economy where kindness and justice shall control all dealings of man with his fellow man. But to accomplish such a result apart from the hand of God to guide and restrain, has proved to be impossible.

Selfishness and sin control too much of the thought and action of our world. We need to be reminded, as was Israel in our lesson, that God has called us to be a holy people. His holiness is not just something of which one sings in a hymn or talks in a sermon. It means among other things, real social justice.

God has always stood for social righteousness. The underlying moral law of the universe demands it, and the law of God as revealed to His people developed and implemented it for successful functioning, were we only wise enough to see and follow it.

It is time that all God's people emphasize God's moral principles in the life of society. Never forgetting that its first business is to preach the redeeming gospel of Christ, the church ought also to make its influence felt for social righteousness. Our lesson speaks first of the foundational matter in all social justice, namely:

I. Holiness of Heart Before God (Lev. 19:1-4). Because God is holy, His people were to be holy. It was not a matter of choice or impulse. They belonged to a holy God, they were to be a holy people.

There is an idea current in the church today which has served Satan well, namely, that holiness of life is something which is not required; that it is expected only of a few folk who are spiritually minded, and that the other professed followers of Christ may go on living a worldly, careless, poverty-stricken life in the devil's own lie. God expects every Christian to be holy.

Such righteousness with God shows itself in a righteousness with others, which we note as our second point:

II. Holiness of Life Before Men (Lev. 19:11-18, 33-34). How intensely practical and workable in daily experience were the laws here given to Israel. They are just as appropos to our present day.

1. Honesty (vv. 11-13). No stealing, no perjury, no lying, no oppression, no withholding of wages, none of these could be tolerated, for they dishonored God's name. Think what the elimination of dishonesty in dealing between men would accomplish. Most of our social problems would be solved overnight. Merchants would do well to read verses 13 and 34 in this connection.

2. Kindness (v. 14). The deaf cannot hear what we say about them, nor can the blind see what we do. But the eternal God hears and sees, and He expects us to be kind to them.

3. Fairness (vv. 15, 16). Some assume that a man must be right because he is rich. Others are equally sure that the poor are always worthy of special consideration. Note the condemnation of the talebearer. Every gossip who reads these words knows that God condemns that evil practice. Nor does He countenance indifference to the welfare of others. Their blood cries out to Him for deliverance (v. 16).

4. Love (vv. 17, 18). "Love thy neighbor as thyself." That is the standard. How much have we done to meet it?

A rebuke may be necessary, but love will not permit grudges, or the seeking of vengeance, even when we have been wronged.

5. Respect (vv. 3, 32). God's Word always stresses the need of a right attitude toward parents. Children need to learn anew the lesson of verse 3.

Then there are the aged (v. 32). Old age pensions doubtless have their place in our complex social order, but perhaps they would not be needed if men and women honored the hoary head and the face of an old man.

FFC J. COLE WRITES FROM OVERSEAS

August 17, 1943. Hello, Coffee County: This is John Henry Cole writing. The son of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Cole who live about 15 miles out of Elba, on the old Cole's homestead, one mile from Coldbridge.

I'm the only one from Coffee County who is in the 26th A. D. G. I know that you all have heard of that group. We were with the Ninth Air Force and I know you read plenty about them in the paper. I have been over here 11 months and I would appreciate a letter from anyone from the good old state of Alabama.

I can't write every one who knows me, for we don't have time. Things over here are not like being in Coffee County—not by a long jump—but I can say some of the country is very beautiful. I have seen the great Pyramids; also have visited the great Church of Christ, and also laid my hand on the Lamb of Christ. Sure wish you folks had the chance to visit those beautiful places.

I think about you all. I wonder if you have forgotten me. Today is my birthday, August 17; the first time I have ever spent one like this, but I'm glad to be here and do my part to win the victory and return home safely and live in peace forever.

My address is: ASN 34275968, 1713 Ord. Co., 26th A.D.G., APO 486, Care Postmaster, New York, N. Y.

MR. WORLEY THINKS IT IS ONE BIG MESS

August 22, 1943. Well, I have just been figuring some and it looks big to me. I have just sold a bale of cotton and got 19½ cents a pound, and I bought a pair of overalls, paying $2.04, and I weighed up the overalls and they weighed even two pounds.

What can we do? Our President expects us farmers to buy war bonds or pay taxes and everything with that much unbalanced, and our government is holding day labor at from $2 to $10 a day and the farmer works for the price we are getting for our products. $1.02 a pound is too much to pay for overalls when we only get 19½ cents a pound, and if we can't get help, it will take a long fight for our boys and the death of millions, and it's going to take lots of men and money.

SCHOOL CHILDREN TO BE SAFEGUARDED

As soon as school starts, the immunization of school children against typhoid, smallpox and diphtheria will begin. Dr. G. L. Weidner, Coffee County Health Officer, stated Monday. The school opening date is set for September 13.

The immunization of students will receive the immediate attention of health authorities this year in order that students volunteering to harvest crops, particularly town children with no rural experience, may have this service.

Plans are made for their protection against polluted drinking water, unsafe transportation vehicles and proximity to machinery which might endanger the young volunteers.

The annual summer clinics held at various schools throughout the county have been completed with effective results, according to the health officer.

Miss Susan Hughes visited Elba this week in the interest of the American Red Cross.

Miss Zedie Rowe has returned from a pleasant visit to her sister, Miss Elizabeth Rowe, in Montgomery.

Forrest Talbot recently received a letter from his son, Kenneth, saying that he likes his home in Grand Rapids, Mich. He said he had a good job and would enjoy having his Elba friends write to him at his new address: 1005 Horton Ave., S. E., Grand Rapids, Mich. He said he likes the delightful cool nights and mornings they have been having—it was actually frosty one August morning. We wonder how Kenny will like the Michigan weather along about next January.

LOYALTY

ON your vacation and business trips in the past—as well as at your neighborhood Service Station—you have been served often by loyal men in the Standard Oil uniform. They were loyal to you—they were loyal to us.

It was only natural that men in whom the quality of loyalty was inbred and cherished should respond in large numbers to the call of their country. Hundreds of these stanch and faithful men have exchanged their old Service uniforms for the new uniform of greater service to Uncle Sam.

Someday they will be coming back, their new job finished. You will find them still loyal to you when they return and change their uniforms again.

In the meantime other loyal men, who have been at their home posts, are upholding this service tradition under difficult and sometimes trying conditions. Loyalty is that personal trait in individuals which makes a Company great—and wins wars.

Coffee County's quota for the Third War Loan campaign has been set at $685,000, according to the announcement of Ed Leigh McMillan, chairman of the War Finance Committee for Alabama. Converted into fighting material, this will mean one heavy bomber and five fighters plus $10,000 for the purchase of high octane gasoline and bombs to "carry the Blitz to Berlin."

Surviving are two sisters: Mrs. Mattie Phillips and Mrs. Lizzie Phillips; seven brothers: Messrs. Henry, George, Nace, Simón, Aaron, Dan and Owen Parker, and many other relatives.

Funeral services were held at New Home Church Sunday afternoon with Elder Malone Meredith officiating. Burial was in the adjoining cemetery. Pallbearers were: Marvin, Oscar, Orell, Arthur, Connie and Neal Parker. Bonneau-Jeter had charge of funeral arrangements.

War Bond Campaign Starts Here Today; Workers Are Listed

Chairman Dick Dorman, of the Third War Loan Campaign for Elba, announces that plans have been completed for a thorough canvass of the city this (Thursday) afternoon, when volunteer workers will give every person the opportunity of purchasing bonds to buy the bombers that will "Carry the Blitz to Berlin."

"Buying these needed bonds won't be easy. But it will be easier than fighting through steaming, Japan-ified jungles, or attacking in the bitter cold of the Aleutians, or flying through enemy flak, or doing any of the scores of dangerous duty, grim tasks our fighting men are performing heroically."

"Alabamians will make the needed investment in Victory. We will 'back the attack' and 'Carry the Blitz to Berlin.'"

Mrs. R. W. Jones, of Bainbridge, Ga., arrived Sunday for a visit with her sister, Mrs. Wesley Harris. She formerly lived in Elba and many friends are glad to see her again.

Mrs. Gussie Hutchinson was appointed full-time executive secretary of the West Coffee County Chapter of American Red Cross at a meeting of the Executive Board on August 28.

Mrs. Hutchinson served the county most efficiently over a period of years as director of the Woman's Department of WPA and is well known throughout this section.

Her office will be located for the present in the grand jury room of the Elba Courthouse and will be open from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. every day. In emergency she can be reached by telephone—No. 177.

THIRD WAR LOAN TAKE-OFF—September 9, at high noon, is the time for the Alabama "Take Off" in the Third War Loan. Alabama Takes-Off At High Noon September 9th To Buy $108,000,000 In Fighters and Bombers

State to "Carry the Blitz to Berlin" in Third War Loan Drive

Alabama takes-off at high noon, September 9, to buy a $108,000,000 fleet of fighters and bombers to "Carry the Blitz to Berlin" as its part of the Third War Loan.

Each county in the state will buy a share of victory by investing in this great aerial fleet of planes that will "Carry the Blitz to Berlin" which is going on all over the world.

"Thousands of convancers, home-front Minute Men and Women, will meet in rallies and luncheons on 'Take-Off' day to listen to a statewide radio broadcast which will originate in Montgomery and which will present Governor Channing every store, every factory and every best."

"Alabama has one of the greatest financial tasks in its history in buying the $108,000,000 in bonds necessary to make an air fleet of its own a reality," Mr. McMillan and Mr. Samford point out in a joint statement.

"It will take every citizen's enthusiasm and sacrifice to achieve this quota. But Alabama has always done any job that was given it and we know that we will overachieve our part of the national $108,000,000 Third War Loan."

"The War cannot be won until Berlin, the heart of the Axis, has suffered the full fury of the blitz."

"Hundreds of planes will be necessary. Now is the time for every citizen to buy his, or her, share in the 19th.
